DIARY No. 22415

Office of the Inspector General of Police in Mysore.

Dated Bangalore 3rd June 1920.

From

A. Subrahmanya Iyer Esquire, B.A.,
Inspector General of Police in Mysore.

To
C.S. Balasundaram Iyer Esquire, B.A.,
Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that according to the Police Manual Part II the Inspector General of Police has to wear the following badges on each shoulder strap.

Three stars and one cross sword and baton (vide page 12 of Part II Police Manual).

In accordance with Government order No. G.3437-46/ Pol. 192-18-2 dated 12th August 1919, the Inspector General has also to wear a crown. Thus he wears 3 stars a crown and a cross sword and baton on each shoulder strap.

2. Though a baton is no doubt appropriate as the badge of a Police Officer it has to be noted that the cross sword and baton appears to be a badge worn by Field Marshals who are Officers of the highest rank in the Military Department. The use of this badge by me has been the matter of comment by people acquainted with the Military Regulations.

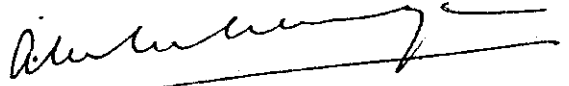

3. The Inspectors-General of Madras and Bombay wear two stars and a crown (vide pages 171 and 155 of the Madras Police orders and Bombay Police Manual Volume I)

There does not seem to be any necessity for the Inspector General of Police, Mysore to use any more. The extra star and cross sword and baton might be done away with.

I have the honor to be

Sir, .

Your most obedient servant,

Inspector General of Police.
